

National Health Systems Resource Centre

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST FOR TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE FOR PROJECTS ON QUALITY IMPROVEMENT AND ACCREDITATION/CERTIFICATION OF MULTISPECIALITY TERTIARY CARE PUBLIC HEALTH FACILITY

NHSRC invites organizations with interest in providing technical assistance for establishing Quality Management Systems in Multispecialty Tertiary Care Public Hospitals with/without teaching facility in India to enable their certification to ISO 9001 standards. Technical support organizations with at least five years experience of commissioning and developing Quality Management System for multispecialty hospitals/health care providers for health care facilities in India are eligible to express interest.

Eligible and Interested institutions may kindly send the following details to Ms Sushma Rath, PAO, NHSRC, NIHFWS Campus, Baba Gangnath Marg, Munirka, New Delhi-110067 by 5 pm on 2nd December, 2009. (E-mail: sushma2764@yahoo.com). Kindly mention – Quality Improvement in the Subject line of the e-mail: The hard copy must also be sent at the above address.

- a) A note on the organization, giving details of registration, key professionals, relevant experience and abstract of works undertaken so far, with emphasis on the last five years.
- b) One recent work conducted by the organization in the tertiary care providing health care facility with at least 150 beds.
- c) A note confirming that organization would be willing to take up the work in any part of the country without any reservations.
- d) List of Institutional client for whom the organization has worked in last three years.